Have you ever experienced a moment of encountering God's grace that transformed your life? How did this encounter change your perspective?

What does this passage have to say about us?

GO

1. Ananias was hesitant to go to Saul because of Saul's reputation for persecuting believers. How can we overcome our fears to extend God's grace to unlikely recipients?
2. Are there individuals in your life to whom you struggle to forgive or extend grace? How can Saul's transformation inspire you toward forgiveness and reconciliation?
3. Like Ananias's display of obedience, what areas in your life require radical obedience to God's calling, even if it seems uncomfortable or risky?
4. Saul's conversion completely transformed his identity and purpose. In what areas of your life do you sense a need for renewal?

PRAY

1. Like Saul, ask God for opportunities to boldly proclaim the truth of Jesus Christ to the people around you (work, neighborhood, friends, family).
2. Pray for God to bring transformation and renewal into areas of your life where change is needed. Ask Him to work His will in you.
- 1) Ask God to reveal His purposes and plans for you and give you the courage to respond obediently.
